

A Team of Equals

Your new support system.

Modern Family Law is a forward-thinking, tech-savvy, and compassionate law firm that helps people move on peacefully with their lives.

At MFL, we know that for you to take care of your clients, we need to take care of you. We do that by offering a relaxed work from home environment, fantastic compensation, and incredible benefits.

We're a team of equals. We may have different responsibilities, but we're all mission critical. We expect everyone to treat each other with the same compassion and respect as we treat our clients.

Find better work/life balance.

Working in Family Law can be challenging. The emotions can take their toll. We do everything we can at MFL to mitigate this by offering a relaxed work from home environment, a free Employee Assistance Program, and a low monthly billable hours goal of only 100 hours per month.

Support System

Our corporate teams are here to serve you while you serve our clients. Our goal is to free you up to be the Attorney or Paralegal you want to be so that you're not worried about things like: billing, collections, payroll, benefits, tech support, or client generation. See our Videos.

High-Tech Firm

We consider ourselves a tech company that practices Family Law. We are Mac based and utilize some of the best software solutions out there. We target clients who use technology to solve their problems and we use technology as much as possible to give them the best outcome possible.

Amazing Benefits

Our benefits are so robust that we gave them their own fact sheet.

Personal Growth

Never stop learning! We offer structured training and mentorship programs. It is our goal to promote from within.

Law Firm Leadership

Dave Johnson
CEO

We believe that if we hire talented, compassionate, and ambitious professionals, give them the right tools and training, and get out of their way, there is no limit to how much they can succeed.

Dani Zhang
CFO

Our finance team leverages technology to optimize our billing and operational processes. We provide strong support to our attorneys and paralegals, as well as timely and critical financial information to steer the firm.

Robert Toler
Director of Marketing

With nearly 50 years of combined marketing experience, the MFL marketing department has the experience to empower attorneys through visual aid, top-notch advertising, and sales guidance to make sure everyone is successful.

Dustin Green
HR Manager

You will not find a more passionate HR team, anywhere! We are empowered to make MFL the employer of choice wherever we operate. We're growing. Come join us.

Jeff Boh
IT Manager

The reason I work at Modern Family Law is to leverage technology to help the firm deliver compassionate service to clients and move them forward as quickly as possible.

Romario Pineda
Director of Operations

Our focus in Operations is to have our legal team concentrate on delivering compassionate and quality legal services. Our tech and forward-looking systems and processes allow us to achieve this daily.
